KEEPERS' COLUMN.

I the ticle below in reference to the arrest of Mrs. Ellen S. Tupper from the Carrol county Mirror of Illinois, which will be read with interest by all bee keepers: MONTICELLO, IOWA, 1876. Mrs. Ellen S. Tupper, a long resident of Des Moines, Iowa, has recently been arrested for the alleged crime of forgery. Heretofore she has borne should be taken to leave plenty of an unblemished character. She with her husband came to this State about twenty years ago with $2,000, with other queen. If you had four or more which they went into business, and finally failed, when from that time to the bees adhering from each of four the present they have been carrying hives, taking care that you do not reon an extensive bee trade. Her huson an extensive bee trade. Her husband being, during most of the time, combs thus transferred should contain unable to secure any labor; threw upon her the burden of providing for the family, which she did with wonderful success. She is a woman of high culsuccess. She is a woman of high culture and refinement, and is known all over the States as the "head centary of this business the "head centary of the "head centa ter" of this business. Her articles all but the largest and best formed have been scattered abroad and are be destroyed for fear of swarming. Do the standard authority. The Chicago not divide too much so as to weaken Bee Journal has been edited by her a vour colonies. You should remember number of years; she is comparatively that the great success in bee-keeping well off; and it is difficult to conceive is in strong swarms. what her motives were in committing such a crime as this. During the Farmer's Institute two weeks ago, she interested her large audience with the subject of her life work, and though she attracted much attention, yet she won the esteem of all present. The facts are about as follows:

On the 11th of last month, Mrs. Tupper, on her way to Delaware County, stopped over one night in Monticello. The following morning she negotiated notes at the Monticello Bank to the amount of $800. Some four or five days later she returned, and before leaving she negotiated other notes at the same bank, bearing the like endorsement of Platt Smith and John Hodgdon, capitalists of Dubuque. Total amount of notes negotiated,$1,774; for which the bank paid $1.600. Friday last it was discovered that the notes were forgeries, and steps were immediately taken for her arrest. Sheriff Babcock with Cyrus Langworthy, cashier of the bank here, started for State Center, where they found the lady in the hands of the officers there. into violent spasms, becoming rigid physician, was immediately telegraped for, but being unable to leave home sent his partner, Dr. Stone. Sheriff Babcock having strong suspicions of spasms, determined to return with her on Saturday morning to Monticello, if possible; summoning a council of physicians, who decided that the lady could be removed without risk of her the late. The secretary distributed comboundations among the members present, and read extracts of the bee journals received. health. Every possible attention was shown the unfortunate woman, her own physician was allowed to accompany ner, and on Monday morning she arrived here. But before leaving State Centre, she placed in the hands of her daughter, Miss Kate Tupper a the hall.

The meeting then adjourned to meet at the same place at one o'clock on the third Saturday in April.

JESUS X CHRIST. The other note was $300 at 60 days, and signed as above. This, indeed, is a strange circumstance. Since her arrival here we have learned of a number of notes she has forged, among which are the names of Hon. James Harlan and Mr. Burroughs, of Des Moines to the amount of $3,000. These she confessed, and as she paid the entire amount no criminal proceeding was commenced against her. Two weeks ago she obtained from the Farmer's Loan and Trust Co., at Vinton, $1,000 on a note bearing the forged signature of Messrs. Hodgdon and Smith, of Dubuque, depositing, as collaterals two notes of $856, and signed by her three brothers. It is not known whether these are forgeries or not. Another collateral was deposited at the same time, signed by Mr. Rockman of Vinton, and Mrs. Caldwell of Council Bluffs. The note of $1000 was send to the National Bank of Des Moines for collection, but failed to ever reach Des Moines, having mysteriously disappeared from the mail between Vinton and Des Moines, and the note of $634 has since come to light in Washington county. She has not had any examination yet, so many sympathizing friends have succeeded so far in keeping the stern arm of the law from her. It is claimed by many that she is insane, and yet we think it a strange freak of insanity. What her defense will be we have not What her defense will be we have not last stopping place of the French familiar them. roe & Herrick are employed as counsel by the State; J. Q. Swarming.

Already swarming has commenced among the Italian colonies in the valley apiaries. In the Los Angeles apiary for the past week the Italians have been throwing off swarms as if they proposed to sweeten the world and the rest of mankind. Early swarming is a peculiar characteristic of the Italian. No black swarms have as yet made No black swarms have as yet made their appearance that we have heard of. Street day afternoon we saw the first box of this season's honey from There are two evils attending matured swarming—uncertainty and loss of swarms by absconding to the woods or to enrich some neighboring apiary and uncertainty on account of the close out in 30 days. You will do well to state of the colony, the season or has at the present time sixty stands of weather. Some seasons they will not hives. If you wish to divide but one swarm, remove from it about one third of the frames that are filled with comb with the queen and bees adhereing. Place them in the middle of your new hive, the empty comb or frames on either side. Then remove the old hive two or three rods and place your new one where the original stood. The Bee-Keepers' Association of Los Angeles county met at Leck's Hall on February 19th, 1876, President Bruck in the chair.

The minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Mr. Bruck read a paper on Salicylic acid as a new remedy for foul brood. The paper was accepted and ordered published in the Los Angeles HERALD, and in the Pacific Rural Press.

The following amendment to the Constitution was adopted: Any member, who, being in arrears with his annual fee, and after having been notified by the Secretary, does not report within three months, shall be struck from the list of members, but shall have the privilege of re-entering the Association on payment of the 11th inst., we take the following: A sad report has been circulating lately among the elite of Paris. The subject which occupied their minds was that of the imminent death of the unfortunate Princess Charlotte, formerly Empress of Mexico. alarm proved to be false; but this distinguished and unhappy personage would have gained had the news been true. Poor lady! once so proud, and now almost converted into a wild beast. Muffled up in one of the corners of her apartment in the castle of Fervueren, she jumps like a panther at whomseever attempts to approach her. Her mind, which in her youthful days was so vigorous and well organized, and which, according to Leonald I. was carpable of discoverations. pold I, was capable of disconcerting a whole Council, is now invaded by a most intense and stupefying darkness.

The Queen of Belgium, who so fondly loves her sister-in-law, can only see her through a sky-light ingeniously placed in the roof which covers the cell of this insane personage. Her hair, which she dresses for whole hours, and her long bill of fare, is all that absorbs the Princess' thoughts. At table, which she prepares herself, she sits alone and helps herself to the choice bits her palate dictates and which she receives out of a handbasket. NEWS OF THE MORNING.

The New York Democratic State Convention will be held April 25th. Prosper M. Wetmore, of the New York University, is dead. The specie of the Bank of France has increased 14,932,000 francs in the past week. Judge Pratt, in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, has denied the application for a writ of error and stay of proceedings in the case of Pesach M. Rubenstein, convicted of the murder of Sarah Alexander.

The four escapes from the Utah penitentiary have been recaptured. The difficulty between Japan and Corea has been settled. A telegram from Alexandria states that in the recent battle the Abyssinians numbered 60.000 and the Egyptians 20,000. It is believed that the Attorney General has sent a man to Canada after Marsh, under promise of safety, and that he will be back in a day or two.

It is estimated that fully twenty barges laden with coal foundered in the Thames during the gale of Tuesday. A Times special from Berlin says that a letter from Peko Paulovich, who commanded the insurgents at the battleo of Muratovizza, asserts that a force of 1,550 insurgents attacked 3,200 Turks. Only 700 of the latter returned to Gatschoko. About 800 were killed and the others were drowned or dispersed. The insurgents captured 775 rifles and four rifled cannon.

The inundations have stopped the tobacco factories of the French government. Two hundred houses are flooded at St

Main, France. A London Times special says that at the batile of Marattorizza about 2500 Turks were killed or dispersed. The Herzegovinians were successful.

It is often the case that the money thus hid away by the panic stricken man, who actually owes it to his neighbor, which if he had been honorable enough to pay would have passed from hand to hand, until the one hundred or one thousand dollars would have paid twenty hundred or twenty thousand dollars, and perhaps have come directly back to himself in the payment of a debt which his neighbor owes bim. But by hiding it away he has put it out of the power for any or all of these men to pay their debts. The consequence is they are all distressed yet, and all in debt. But cisco by SPRR: Wm J Hansaker, says the timid man, "I am not Frederick Williams, C Hanfon and H all distressed yet, and all in debt. But in debt and my money is my own therefore I can not be censured for hiding it." This is a mistake. You are acting the part of a misanthrope, who with his barns filled with plenty, can look around with indifference upon his neighbors who are perishing in a famine. It is to just such men that we are indebted for the present stringency in many matters. There is more money in Los Angeles county to-day by fifty per cent, than we ever had before. But the fright that came so unexpectedly upon the people, has not yet passed that we are out of danger, and will soon be able to move on without the influx of emigrants, who are purchasing lands, and building houses, the sale of the orange crop, and very soon million to what we now have. Two months more will give us all the money and more than we shall need for the business of the county.

"Crooked" in San Francisco.

A gentleman connected with an Eastern journal, recently spent some weeks in San Francisco and vicinity, time since and we presume reported, for shortly after the telegraph began to regale us with bits of information relative to the whiskey business on this coast. Among other items appeared one hinting some what strongly that Senator SARGENT was allied with the San Francisco whiskey ring. Now, however, the secret agent comes out with the statement that no facts obtained by him tended to implicate their suspicious actions causing some alarm. It was intimated and that those friends were not ignorant of the advantages resulting from having a friend at court. If this custom prevailed in Cole's Senatorial days why should it not exist in those of SARGENT. The whiskey manufacturing business of San Francisco is in the hands of a few persons who constitute themselves a close corporation. The motions were finally withdrawn and the Archer bill read from the desk. The following question was then put to the Senate by the chair: Shall the bill be read a third time and passed? Lewis argued at length that the bill was unconstitutional and in conflict with section 31 of article 4 of the price. State Constitution. He quoted from high legal authorities in support of his propositions, and he held that the bill was also in conflict with section 16 of article 1, inasmuch as it was an ex post facto and impairs the obligation of a contract law. A Leaf from the History of Alfred A. Cohen.

Among the persons who are in opposition to the Central Pacific Railroad, none appear so conspicuous as a man whose name is Alfred A. Cohen. The public may perhaps be able to form some estimate of this man's character by reading the following extract from | Under the immediate direction of the world-Address by the President of the day, the San Francisco Bulletin of March 12th, 1856. The article referred to is entitled "HONOR AMONG THIEVES" and is as follows: In his letter to the New York Tribune, Mr of the Evening Post charged with publishing a libel on T. M. Dawson was held to answer the charge before the or indirectly. In the evidence brought out at the trial Mr. Julian K. Cohen made Woods believe that he had paid made Woods believe that he had paid the whole $1,000 and thus cheated Woods, his brother thief, out of $500.

As regards the honesty and business habits of this Mr. Alfred A. Cohen, so much prated of by Dr. Gibbons, we believe he would sell his soul, if he had any, for money; and so keen is he after a trade, that he would undersell all competitors.

Had Cohen lived in the time of our Savior, it is our private opinion that there might have been saved all the way from one to twenty-nine pieces

Mrs. Mary Connelly who was on trial in the County Court for sheeting at the man Dunn was acquitted yesterday afternoon. A great deal of interest was developed in the case and people generally think that the woman was about right. About one o'clock yesterday afternoon a little son of Mr. Howard, of the firm of Foster, Howard & Co., was run over by a heavy truck loaded with lumber. The wheel passed over the boy's chest, we are informed, and inflicted injuries which may prove fatal.

Only one bid was presented to the Conneil yesterday for the construction of the submerged dam. The City Fathers concluded that if the contrac-tors couldn't do better than that they might as well quit, and so postponed the dam business till next Spring. Piper's Opera House Company will remain one day longer in San Bernardino, by special request. They have had crowded houses at each entertainment. The company will be here and open in Merced Theatre tomorrow evening. Captain Smith's son while driving a double team down Temple street yesterday, managed to get horses, wagon and all into a large pond which has collected on one side of the street.

The horses were drowned and young Smith narrowly escaped. After one or two horses have had their legs broken by the holes at the corner of High and Sixth streets, it is supposed that the city will pay for the quadrupeds and fill up the holes.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT of the 17th Judicial District, of the State of California, in and for the county of Los Angeles. Action

I Judicial District, of the State of California, in and for the county of Los Angeles. Action brought in the District Court of the 17th Judicial District of the State of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles, and the Complaint filed in said county of Los Angeles, in the office of the Clerk of said District Court. Alexander Weill, plaintiff, vs. Norman C. Jones, et al, detendants.

The People of the State of California send greeting to Norman C. Jones, Milton S. Latham; William Workman and F. P. F. Temple, composing the firm of Temple & Workman, Daniel Freeman and E. F. Spence, assignees of said Temple & Workman, E. W. Gale, P. H. Gale, Alexander C. Gale and George K. Gale, defendants.

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above-named plaintiff, in the District Court of the 17th Judicial District of the State of California, in and for the county of Los Angeles, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this Summons—if served within this county; or, if served out of this county, but in this District, within twenty days; otherwise, within forry days, or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to obtain a de-against you according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to obtain a decree of this court in case the detendant, Norman C. Jones, shall at the hearing of this suit have failed to pay to the plaintiff the amount of principal and interest now due from him on the two agreements mentioned in the complaint, amounting, as alleged, in the aggregate to the sum of $5,325 60, U.S. gold coin, principal, and $4,157 50, U.S. gold coin, interest, that the plaintiff be restored to the possession of the real, property in the complaint described; that the plaintiff be decreed to have the same estate and interest in said premises as before the execution—of said agreement; that the premises respectively igreement; that the premises respectively lescribed in said agreements be declared dis
